7. Internal Disputes

7.1 Resolution of Internal Disputes

Disputes between Members (in their capacity as Members) of the Institute, are to be resolved in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Procedure set out in the Regulations.

If the matter cannot be resolved in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Procedure the dispute is to be referred to a mediator listed by the relevant State Supreme Court Act for mediation.

At least 7 days before a mediation session is to commence, the parties are to exchange statements of the issues that are in dispute between them and supply copies to the mediator.

8. Disciplinary and Appeal System

For the implementation of the Dispute Resolution System the Institute will cause the following national Committees to be formed in accordance with clause 26 of the Constitution:

- Disciplinary Committee; and
- Appeal Committee.

State chapters will not be required to establish individual Disciplinary and Appeal committees.

8.1 The Disciplinary Committee

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of three Members nominated and approved by the Board of Directors.

The Disciplinary Committee shall include at least one of the Institute's Directors.

The Disciplinary Committee shall not include any Member of the Appeal Committee.

Not less than two Members of the Disciplinary Committee shall hear and determine any matter brought before it in accordance with these Regulations.

The Disciplinary Committee shall exercise its powers and functions in accordance with clause 26 of the Constitution.

8.2 The Appeal Committee

The Appeal Committee shall consist of at least three Members nominated and approved by the Board of Directors.

The Appeal Committee shall include at least one of the Institute's Directors.

The Appeal Committee shall not include any Member of the Disciplinary Committee.

Not less than two Members of the Appeal Committee shall hear and determine any matter brought before it in accordance with these Regulations.

The Appeal Committee shall exercise its powers and functions in accordance with clause 26 of the Constitution.

9. Complaint Procedure

A complaint may be forwarded to the relevant Chapter President by any person.

All such complaints shall be kept confidential during the investigation of the complaint.

Complaints can be received in written or verbal form in any language and the Institute will make available an interpreter as appropriate in the circumstances.

The Institute can use any appropriate form of technology in either receiving or progressing the complaint.

Complaints can be received through various channels including the Institute's advertised phone number being, 1300 657 124, through the Contact Us function of the website or directly to an office holder at either a Chapter or National level.

Upon receipt of a complaint it is to be referred to the Chapter President or delegate as soon as practicable, but within two business days.

9.1 Chapter President role

On receiving such a complaint, the Chapter President:

- a) Must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the Member concerned;
- b) Assess the seriousness of the complaint and either:
 - i. Contact the Member concerned to arrange a mediated meeting between the Member, the Chapter President and any other persons the Chapter President deems appropriate; or
 - ii. Refer the complaint to the Disciplinary Committee.

9.2 Disciplinary Committee role

On receiving such a complaint, the Disciplinary Committee must:

- a) Cause notice of the complaint to be served on the Member concerned that the complaint has been referred to the Disciplinary Committee;

- b) Give the Member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which the Member may make submissions to the Disciplinary Committee in connection with the complaint; and
- c) Take into consideration any submissions made by the Member in connection with the complaint.

After having considering the complaint, and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, the Disciplinary Committee is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved it may recommend to the Board one or more of the following;

- Expel the Member from the Institute
- Suspend the Member from Membership of the Institute
- Impose a pecuniary penalty
- Impose any other sanction it may see as appropriate in the circumstances including recovery of the costs of the Disciplinary action.

The Disciplinary Committee shall have the right to engage legal or other expert assistance, as it deems appropriate.

If the Disciplinary Committee expels or suspends a Member, the Secretary must, within seven days after the action is taken, cause written notice to be given to the Member against who the action was taken, setting out the reasons given by the Disciplinary Committee for having taken that action and of the Member's right of appeal under regulation 9.3.

The expulsion or suspension does not take effect until the expiration of the period within which the Member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned.

In the event that some sanction other than expulsion or suspension is imposed, the Secretary must advise the Member against whom the action has been taken of its date of effect and any other relevant instruction within seven days after the action is taken and advise the said Member of their right of appeal.

9.3 Right of appeal of the disciplined Member

A Member may appeal to the Appeal Committee against a decision of the Disciplinary Committee within seven days after notice of the decision is served on the Member, by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.

The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of grounds upon which the Member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.

On receipt of a notice from a Member under regulation 9.3, the Secretary must notify the Appeal Committee that is to convene a meeting with 28 days after the date on which the secretary received the notice.

At the meeting of the Appeal Committee convened under clause Regulation 8.2 the:

- a) Disciplinary Committee and the Member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing or both, and
- b) Appeal Committee is to determine whether the decision of the Disciplinary Committee should be confirmed or revoked.

If the Appeal Committee confirms the decision of the Disciplinary Committee, that decision is deemed to be final. Notwithstanding the Member may seek to have the dispute mediated in accordance with regulation 7.1

In the case of sanctions other than expulsion or dismissal, the Appeal Committee, may ratify the sanction or impose such other sanction as it sees fit.

An applicant for membership may also appeal to the Appeal Committee against a decision of the Membership Committee within seven days after notice of the decision is served on the Member, by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.

9.4 Publication of adverse findings

Following the exhaustion of the discipline and appeal processes, and in the interests of public confidence in the Institute and transparency of proceedings, a summary of all adverse findings, including the identification of the member and details of penalties imposed, will be published by the institute in a register that is available for public inspection.

9.5 Alleged criminal misconduct

Matters relating to the alleged criminal misconduct of a member should be immediately referred to the relevant police authorities.

9.6 Recording and management of Complaint

It is the responsibility of the National Secretary to ensure:

- a) All complaints are Recorded in a register or other appropriate recording system, including the outcome of the Complaint which is easily accessible for the purposes of public inspection
- b) Copies of the complaint and all other documentation used in the Complaint handling process are filed for later review as necessary.\
- c) Timeframes for notification and response are adhered to
- d) Upon completion of each complaint review the process to ensure it complied with the procedure and report results of the complaint outcome to the next National Executive Meeting.
